

Ladies & Gentlemen,

We wanted to give each of you a quick update on venues and events we are working on for our attendees' enjoyment at the 2012 National Convention. Most of these venues and events are tentative and are provided to you for your information and planning as necessary. We are very excited about the possibilities if we can make all of these things happen so stay tuned as we progress to Indianapolis, IN and our 94th National Convention.

- 1. Friday, August 24, 2012 – American Legion Family night with the Indianapolis Indians – AAA Baseball Club. Game time is 7:15PM and we are working on several items at this point. More information to follow.
- 2. Saturday, August 25, 2012 – American Legion Riders night time event. More information to follow.
- 3. Sunday, August 26, 2012 – 2012 national convention parade beginning promptly at 4:00PM. Great parade route going right through the heart of the city from Pennsylvania Avenue to Ohio Street to Meridian Street and ending about 10th Street. Post Parade Party at American Legion Mall. More information to follow.
- 4. Tuesday, August 28, 2012 – National Commander's Banquet. Our very own Country Star Michael Peterson is confirmed as our entertainment. Tickets are $45.00 per person.
- 5. A reminder to each of you concerning convention registration, effective with the 2012 National Convention registration is $25.00 per person 18 years of age or older.
- 6. Tours of your National Headquarters at both Indianapolis, IN locations. More information to follow.

We are confident our American Legion Family members will enjoy the events we have planned for them as well as the business sessions of The American Legion and other aspects of our 94th National Convention. We thank each of you for your continued support and assistance. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Your Convention & Meetings Team
